

The poster features a dark background with gold diagonal stripes. At the top, there are gold Christmas ornaments: a silver and gold patterned one on the left, a gold one with 'ST. PAUL'S' in the center, and a gold and silver patterned one on the right. A string of gold pine tree cutouts hangs across the top. A gold and silver patterned ornament hangs from a ribbon on the right. At the bottom, there are gold Christmas trees: a large one on the left and four smaller ones in the center. A gold star is at the top of the large tree on the left, and another is at the top of the large tree on the right.

Relays & Event 14:

These events are free for all swimmers and will be run if numbers permit. Swimmers wishing to take part should report to marshalling when called.

Programme: Initial seeding and the event programme will be circulated on Thursday afternoon following close of entries.

Format:

All events will be swum as Mixed Races. Swimmers with No Times (NT) will be seeded within their age group.

LTS swimmers will compete in separate heats, with hand-timed results provided after each race.

Results from LTS events will not be uploaded to the Swimming New Zealand database.

Officials and Volunteers: The meet will be conducted with trainee officials and will follow Swimming New Zealand competition rules as closely as possible.

Parent volunteers are essential to help run the meet. Please get involved, try different roles, and enjoy supporting our swimmers.

Photography: By entering this meet, participants agree that photographs, videos, or media taken by accredited club photographers may be used for legitimate St Paul's Swim Club purposes. If you prefer your child not be photographed, please notify the club before the meet.
